Student aid: how it works where you live

Canada Student Grants and Loans work differently in each province. Sort eight provinces and territories into the four setups.

HOW TO PLAY

1. Read the four setups in the window. They come from Canada.ca.
2. For each place, write the setup it uses.
3. Colour the pane with that setup's colour.

1 Ontario
Setup: _____ Where to apply: _____

2 Alberta
Setup: _____ Where to apply: _____

3 Quebec
Setup: _____ Where to apply: _____

4 British Columbia
Setup: _____ Where to apply: _____

5 Nova Scotia
Setup: _____ Where to apply: _____

6 Yukon
Setup: _____ Where to apply: _____

7 Saskatchewan
Setup: _____ Where to apply: _____

8 Prince Edward Island
Setup: _____ Where to apply: _____

THE FOUR SETUPS

- ● Green = Integrated: federal and provincial aid together
- ■ Blue = Separate: federal and provincial aid provided separately
- ◆ Orange = Own program: Canada Student Grants and Loans aren't available
- ▲ Yellow = Federal + territorial grants only

1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8

Three more facts from Canada.ca

1. Apply with the province or territory you live in.
2. You start paying back your loan 6 months after you finish your studies.
3. Having trouble paying? The Repayment Assistance Plan (RAP) can help.

TRY THIS

Find your own province's student aid site and note its application opening date for next year.

CHECK

Provinces decide which schools and programs qualify. Check your school is on the designated list before you count on aid.

WHAT THIS SHEET LEAVES OUT

How much you can get, grants for specific groups, part-time aid, and the rules for private for-profit schools. Amounts are calculated when you apply.

WITH A PARTNER

Quiz each other: name a province, the partner names its setup and where you'd apply.
