Disability funding and supports checklist (student aid grant, accessibility office)

One checklist for the money and the supports: the federal grant for students with disabilities through your student aid application, your disability documents, and your school's accessibility office.

NAME

DATE

PROVINCE OR TERRITORY OF STUDENT AID

ACCESSIBILITY OFFICE CONTACT

DOCUMENTS ON FILE (TYPE AND DATE)

ACCOMMODATION LETTER SENT TO

FUNDING AND SUPPORTS

- [ ] Student aid application filed with the disability section completed
- [ ] Disability document ready in the form my student aid program asks for
- [ ] Checked whether my province or territory runs its own program instead
- [ ] Registered with my school's accessibility office
- [ ] Accommodation plan agreed for this term
- [ ] Professors or instructors given my accommodation letter
- [ ] Exam accommodations booked before each deadline
- [ ] Asked about equipment, services or housing supports

TERM BY TERM

Term	Grant or bursary applied for	Amount or reply	Accommodations in place	Follow-up

What counts as a recognized disability, and which documents are accepted, is set by each program. Check the official page and your school's office.

SOURCES (CHECKED 2026-11-27)

Canada says that until the end of the 2026 to 2027 school year, the Canada Student Grant for Students with Disabilities could give you $2,800 per year. https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/education/grants/disabilities.html (checked 2026-11-27)
Canada says you can apply for the grant at the same time as you apply for student aid with your province or territory. https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/education/grants/disabilities.html (checked 2026-11-27)
Its eligibility includes financial need, being in a qualified program at a designated school, and a disability recognized by the Canada Student Financial Assistance Program. https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/education/grants/disabilities.html (checked 2026-11-27)
Canada says the grant is not available to students from the Northwest Territories, Nunavut and Quebec, which have their own student aid programs. https://www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/education/grants/disabilities.html (checked 2026-11-27)