Practice three-statement financial model

A blank income statement, balance sheet and cash-flow layout for coursework or a case competition. Not financial, tax or investment advice.

NAME

DATE

THE EXERCISE

CASE OR COURSE NAME

CURRENCY AND UNITS (FOR EXAMPLE CAD THOUSANDS)

YEARS OR MONTHS IN THE MODEL

DATE

INCOME STATEMENT

Income statement line	Period 1	Period 2	Period 3	Notes / formula I used
Revenue
Cost of sales
Gross profit
Operating expenses
Operating income
Interest
Income before tax
Tax
Net income

BALANCE SHEET

Balance sheet line	Period 1	Period 2	Period 3	Notes / formula I used
Cash
Other current assets
Non-current assets
Total assets
Current liabilities
Non-current liabilities
Equity

Practice three-statement financial model (continued)

Balance sheet line	Period 1	Period 2	Period 3	Notes / formula I used
Total liabilities and equity

CASH FLOW

Cash-flow line	Period 1	Period 2	Period 3	Notes / formula I used
Operating cash flow
Investing cash flow
Financing cash flow
Net change in cash
Opening cash
Closing cash

Use the line names and methods your course or case package specified. This layout does not replace those instructions, and it is not a forecast of a real company.

SOURCES (CHECKED 2026-11-27)

Check current CPA Canada's official PEP page, if this model is for CPA-related coursework on the official page.
https://www.cpacanada.ca/become-a-cpa/CPA-Professional-Education-Program-CPA-PEP (checked 2026-11-26)