If you have more than one job at the same time, read the CRA page on TD1 before claiming amounts twice.

SOURCES (CHECKED 2026-11-26)

CRA says Form TD1 must be completed when you start a new job so your employer can pay you accurately, and you must sign and date it and give it to your employer. https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/individuals/educational-programs/starting-work.html (checked 2026-11-26)
CRA says that if you work for more than one employer at the same time, you can only claim amounts such as the basic personal amount on one of your TD1 forms. https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/individuals/educational-programs/starting-work.html (checked 2026-11-26)
CRA says a temporary SIN begins with 9 and has an expiry date. https://www.canada.ca/en/revenue-agency/services/tax/individuals/educational-programs/starting-work.html (checked 2026-11-26)
